

HALL OF HONOR CLASS OF 2018

JAMES E. KING

James E. King was the Coleman Bluecat Band's first band director in the 1930's. Mr. King, also known as "Prof" by his students, attended St. Louis Conservatory of Music. Mr. King composed the CHS Alma Mater. Mr. King was also the founder of TMEA (Texas Music Educators Association). TMEA is Texas' largest music educator association with over 15,000 members. Early in his career, Mr. King directed the TCU and Baylor Bands at the start of both programs. Mr. King organized the first band contest in Texas which was held at the State Fair in Dallas.