

HALL OF HONOR CLASS OF 2018

LT. GENERAL JAMES TERRY SCOTT

General Scott graduated from Coleman High School in 1960. General Scott received his bachelor's degree from Texas A&M and his MBA from Fairleigh-Dickinson University. General Scott served 32 years in the United States Army. He had several key commands in Europe, Africa, Korea and the United States. His military experience included command of tactical units at all levels. He served on the faculty of West Point, Harvard and Howard Payne University. During his service, the Army honored General Scott with five military awards for Valor and two Purple Hearts for wounds received in combat.